1 STANFORTH KIBO DIRT DROP £1,995

This is the drop-bar version of Stanforth's retro-style 26in-wheel steel tourer, which I saw at Bespoked. I'd prefer a threadless headset, an Allen key being lighter than two big spanners on tour. stanforthbikes.co.uk

2 SHIMANO METREA

Shimano's Metropolitan Real sports-hybrid groupset may have risible marketing but it's bringing us useful-looking bullhorn-style H-bars and STI levers to match. bit.ly/risible-metrea

3 ORTLIEB BIKEPACKING SEAT-PACK £110

The waterproof bag manufacturer has turned its attention to bikepacking. The seat-pack weighs 430g, holds up to 16.5L, and keeps its contents and your backside dry. ortlieb.de

4 SPEEDPLAY SYZR STAINLESS PEDALS £189.99

Speedplay's new two-bolt, walkable-clip pedals promise 10 degrees of float, easy entry, and secure foot retention. Is it better than SPD? We've asked for a set to try. i-ride.co.uk

5 THE ULTIMATE UK CYCLE ROUTE PLANNER £9.95

Fancy a traffic-free or quiet roads tour but aren't sure where? The 3rd edition of this UK map is ideal for early-stages planning. Rail and ferry information adds usefulness. excellentbooks.co.uk

6 WKIFFY FLASH £2160

This curious, leanable little cargo trike is now available with 20in wheels rather than the rarer 18in. The front half detaches for storage or for trolleying cargo on foot. kiffy.fr & spacycles.co.uk

7 BBB DUAL PRESSURE BMP-39 £59.99

It's a shock pump and tyre pump in one; it switches between high pressure and high volume(ish) inflation. At 206g, it's a weight-saver for mid-ride suspension fettlers and off-road ride leaders. bbbicycling.com
